

Special Issue on

Design and Experimentation of Bioinspired
Bouligand-structured FRPs as Higher Performance

Call For Papers

A new Special Issue Design and Experimentation of Bioinspired Bouligand-structured FRPs as Higher Performance (<http://ijmea.org/sinfo/220025>) has been launched in International Journal of Mechanical Engineering and Applications (<http://www.ijmea.org>). This Special Issue intends to collect research achievements concerning Fibre Reinforced Polymers. Novel insights as well as fundamental research on the topics are warmly welcomed. Your submissions along with your ingenious works are expected.
